Spacek. By theprairiesbookreview on May 11, 2020 • (0). An intriguing read... Merging elements of a fantasy world into an urban setting, Spacek's debut takes readers on a thrilling journey. review website - The Prairies Book Review I'm homebrewing (5e) a magic item that is a rapier with a permanent Invisibility effect (only the sword is invisible, not the wielder), and trying to think how that should affect the rules. The most obvious idea is to deny any DEX bonus to AC, but I think it would be odd that you can't learn to read the movements of the swordsman. I'm toying with, "you only get AC from armor, not DEX or shield ... What's a reasonable ruleset for an "invisible weapon?" The sword also has a heavily ornate hilt with a four-sided guard, a grip with a spiral design, and a sphere for the pommel. The sword's original ability is to absorb spells and then to release that magic in a flying slash. Another ability the sword possesses is connecting the wielder to their allies. demon dweller sword replica - amberwoodent.com However, its wielder, Lin Lie, has already made an impact in the Marvel Universe as Sword Master.
